WASHINGTON, D.C., SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1898.

No. 9.

Prof. James Monroe Gregory, of Bordentown, N. J.
His boy who have become famous.—See 4th page.

Be what you seem to be and nothing more.
 Don't be alarmed because the country is safe.
 It is now Major Sylvester.
 He will be a true friend to the colored man.
 The River Queen is the fastest rat on the Potomac.
 Be truthful and loyal to your friends.
 Santiago has fallen.
 Judge Taylor occupied the bench Monday.
 There will be some ch in the Freedmen's Hospital.
 Dr. Curtis will be made to understand that he will be made to know a thing or two.
 False friendship sometimes is the result of a weak mind.
 What is the world coming to any way?
 Don't tell all you know.
 It is the false man who does false deeds.
 Nothing is better than a quiet life.
 You will live longer.
 Don't be worried over troubles.
 If you know what you are talking about express yourself.
 The colored American believes in supporting one candidate.
 Messrs. E. E. Cooper and Robt. H. Terrell made speeches on last Saturday for Mr. Gould.
 It has been but a short time since he wrote an article in support of Mr. McDonald.
 "All this world is a stage."
 Speak the truth always it will pay.
 The war is not over yet.
 Don't be too hasty in expressing our opinion.
 The kindergarten teachers have been appointed.
 What encouragement was there for the post graduates.
 Miss Lucy Moten will not resign.
 She will find that it is easier to resign than it will be to retain the Normal school.
 Some people will make promises to break them.
 You can find out a false-hearted man after death.
 His misdeeds will be shown up.
 Speak kindly of your friends.
 The civil service law will be changed soon.
 Col. Daniel H. Williams is in town and will make things hot for his enemies.
 The BEE predicted the appointment of Major Sylvester.
 Don't be too confident in anything.
 The Capital Saving Bank is one of the most reliable institutions in the country.
 The Freedmen's Hospital will have a turning over.
 You can very seldom find your friend when you are in trouble.
 It is the bad man who does the bad deeds.
 Judge Kimball has gone on a vacation.
 No one regrets it nor will any one weep.
 President Rankin will not consent to the wholesale changes in the hospital.
 The President of the United States is considering the appointment of a colored colonel.
 What becomes of a man's conscience after he betrays a friend.
 Every time a man thinks he can come to Congress he is mistaken.
 Speak gently and kindly to your friends.
 Don't you forget what your duty is at home.
 What is the world coming to?
 Our Normal school should be re-organized.
 Some men make promises but very seldom keep them.

OUR NEW LEADERSHIP.

Well we have our new leadership? We asked for it and we have received it. It is an aphorism old and ancient, "ask for what you want in My name and it shall be given to you." This new leadership that we have asked for is a band of apologists and trimmers. We are also confronted with a new office hunter, the political agitator and dissatisfied politician. He is dissatisfied because the negroes have been discriminated against. So much dissatisfied is he that the leading negroes in this country have decided to join in a call for the organization of an Afro-American League. This political agitator and organizer, wants to be appointed one of the Industrial Commissioners. Should he be appointed a commissioner what will become of his non political league? It has been our experience in life, no matter how much indifference a negro shows, he becomes intoxicated by the blandishments of official power. He becomes stupefied which terminates into a disease of perpetual office-seeking and office holding. Negro leadership goes up like a bubble and bursts in the atmosphere sixteen feet high. There is as much vigor in negro leadership as there is in a soap bubble.

President McKinley has given us a new leadership which is no more help to the masses than the eloquence of a stump speaker discussing the elements of vinegar to cattle drivers. We have enough of this new leadership.

SANTIAGO.

It is unfair and unjust to the Cuban negroes in Santiago to charge that they would be unfit for self-government if the United States were to turn that country over to the Cubans. That the Cuban negroes are vicious and vindictive. It is quite evident that the United States lean more toward the enemy than they do toward their friends. The Cubans have cause to complain when they see with what consideration this government treats the enemy and with what little respect the friends of the republic are treated.

There has been an effort and a disposition to ignore the negro in this fight, notwithstanding the valor he displayed at Santiago, when the Rough Riders made their charge to death. President McKinley is in duty bound to call his subordinates to a halt and see that they treat the negro with more consideration. The treachery of the Spaniards is too well known to this government. Their butchery of innocent and helpless Cubans makes them want to resent not imaginary, but real wrongs.

The administration may not be a party to the acts of discrimination on the part of their subordinates, but they are so glaring which makes us believe these injustices are not perpetrated without the knowledge of some one.

The colored democrats have issued a call for a convention. Mr. Manning, asserts that the negroes have been badly treated.

Notwithstanding the bravery of the negro at Santiago, not one has been promoted as yet.

HENRY DEMAS.

The people of this country are anxiously waiting for the re-appointment of Hon. Henry Demas as naval officer at the Port of New Orleans, La. We understand that Ex-Governor Kellogg has assured the President that no more opposition will be made to any more Louisiana appointments. The appointment of Mr. Wimberly is no surprise to us, because it is understood that a compromise has been made by the appointment of two of the opposition faction.

The charges against Mr. Wimberly were more serious than those against Mr. Demas, not saying that any of them are true. Mr. Kellogg, we are informed, has withdrawn the charges against Mr. Wimberly and his confirmation is assured. In view of this we believe that the President will reappoint Mr. Demas and see that he is confirmed. The President has a precedent for this to wit, in the case of Hon. James C. Matthews of Albany. He was rejected by the Senate and then renominated by Mr. Cleveland. We believe that the President will stand by Demas.

PINCHBACK IS MAD.

From the Atlanta Age.

1422 Bacon Street, Washington, D. C. July 18, 1898.
W. A. Pledger, Atlanta, Ga.

Sir:—A friend has just shown me your paper, the Age, in which you give me a dirty dig. In view of the long years of our acquaintance and the unbroken profession of friendship you have manifested for me I am compelled to exclaim et tu brute!

Your unfriendly action is the more surprising because the least expected and I frankly confess, pains me beyond expression. You ought to be ashamed of yourself.

Very respectfully,

P. B. S. Pinchback.

The governor is off the track. We are his friend. We would be glad to see him if the U. S. Senate. Indeed we would be glad to see him President. We are not in the habit however of recommending one of our friends who is a carpenter for building brick houses.

We say now, as we said before that old men like Pinchback, who knows nothing about these latter days military tactics, have no business trying to secure the command of a brigade where the lives of so many men would be at stake. It is almost like giving a child a razor, recommending him as fit to take charge of a chair in a barber shop.

Ex-Governor P. B. S. Pinchback is no older than many others who have been appointed in the army. He is just as competent. If what the Age says be true, The Bee would have the same reason for saying that Col. Pledger was turned down because he is an old mossback and anti bellion politician. Gov. Pinchback has as much right to aspire to a generalship in the army as M. C. Butler or the Hamburg fame, Wheeler and other copper-head democrats had to be appointed. Gov. Pinchback know as much about military tactics as many who have been recently appointed.

The independent ticket in Virginia is growing to an immense size.

The white politicians in the State of Virginia, have ignored every negro. Mat Lewis, James H. Hayes, John Mitchell, jr., and others have been systematically ignored and still some of them are singing the praises of some of these republicans.

COLORED DEMOCRATS.

A CONVENTION CALLED TO MEET IN NEW YORK—PRESIDENTIAL DISCRIMINATION THE ISSUE.

Mr. A. E. Manning, Editor of the Indianapolis, Ind., World and president of the Negro National Democratic League, has issued a call for the meeting of the Negro National Democratic League, to meet in convention in the city of New York, Tuesday August 9th, at 12 o'clock, noon. In his call Mr. Manning takes exception to the Administration ignoring the appointment of colored men as officers in the army and the enlistment of colored soldiers. He makes this discrimination an issue in the coming campaign. Every State and Territory in the Union will send delegates.

THE BEE's School of Printing will be one of the best institutions of its character in the United States.

THE HAMPTON CONFERENCE.

EDUCATORS MEET.—A DISTINGUISHED GATHERING PRESENT. ABLE ADDRESSES. GOOD ADVICE TO THE RACE.

Hampton, Va., July 23, 1898.—The second annual Negro Conference held its sessions at the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute, last week. Fully three hundred individuals, ministers, preachers and teachers, male and female, attended its sessions. Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Maryland, Indiana, Missouri, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia were actively represented in its councils.

Among the topics considered were Temperance, by Rev. F. J. Grimké; Remedies for Excessive Mortality, by Dr. F. J. Shadd; The business outlook to the colored people of the United States as affected by the present war, by Hon. John E. Durham of Pa.; Conditions and needs of the colored ministry, by Rev. J. E. Jones, D. D.; How to hold young people in the church, by Rev. Hutchens C. Bishop; Industrial schools, by Dr. J. E. Shepard; Cooperation between the industrial schools of the south, by Prof. S. G. Atkins; and Sewing in public schools, by Miss Carrie E. Syphax.

Reports on the condition of the colored people as to schools, business, their churches and the accumulation of wealth were made from different sections of the State. They showed steady growth in all the essentials of progress. Two especially interesting reports were made. Mr. Andrew F. Hilyer, investigated the cases of thirty-five different colored individuals and estates owning ten thousands dollars and over.

Of these 4 are physicians, 5 in government service, 6 teachers of public schools, 14 are in business, 5 depend on their inheritances and one is retired.

The bulk of their investments is in real estate, the entire number have found in enterprises managed wholly by white men, but only twelve of the 35 invest in colored enterprises.

Nine of these have received collegiate instruction, 7 were educated in secondary schools. Seventeen of the thirty-five have received inheritances, eleven have added to their heritages, sixteen had excellent home training and the rest were self-made men.

As a result of his observations Mr. Hilyer has reached the following two conclusions: Wealthy colored men are not disposed to contribute of their means to enterprises originating among their race. 2. Colored men as a class are not disposed to patronize business establishments of their own race.

Sharply contrasting with Mr. Hilyer's observations and conclusions was the report by Mr. Lemon who for several years at Calhoun, Ala., has been remarkably successful in buying real estate and dividing it among the mortgage-ridden tillers of the soil of that section. His report was one of the most thrilling of the entire conference, as well as it was the most hopeful indication of the entire situation. He had inspired confidence in the illiterate masses and ultimately secured the cooperation of white planters.

A special session was held by the women at which sundry reports on different phases of women's work in town and country, closely held the attention of the audiences. The principal feature was the address of Mrs. Victoria Earle Matthews, on the Dangers encountered by southern girls in northern cities, who are enticed either by alluring reports only to find themselves confronted by conditions that lead to their corruption. After very intensely interesting addresses by Mrs. Sarah Titts Mrs. F. E. W. Harper, Miss M. R. Bowen, Mrs. Coleman of the Harborside, Mrs. M. E. Brown, Mrs. B. B. Bower and Mrs. Lucy B. Stephens. Mrs. Orna Langhorne, Miss E. B. Kruse of Wilmington, Del., led a practical movement by contributing $5 to help print the remarkable address of Mrs. Matthews and in a very few minutes Prof. Hugh M. Browne and I. C. Walker, had collected $56 toward the result. Mr. Goodrich spoke of the wastes of the southern farming, and gave many practical hints.

During the year the work of the conference will be looked after by several committees: Education—H. A. Browne, chairman; Domestic Economy—Victoria Earle Matthews, chairman; Religion and Morals—Rev. F. J. Grimké, chairman; Business and Labor—Andrew F. Hilyer, chairman; Vital and Sanitary Interests—Dr. F. J. Shadd, chairman; Soldiers Relief—G. F. Bragg, chairman; and Statistics—J. W. Cromwell, chairman.

The Committee on Resolutions which embodied the work of the conference were: Kelly Miller, chairman; Hugh M. Browne, R. R. Wright, F. J. Shadd, Edmonia B. Kruse and S. G. Atkins.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTION.

EDUCATION.

There is need of closed unity and articulation among educational institutions, and a sensible adaptation of their courses to the instruction give in the public schools. The industrial schools should adopt graded and uniform courses of instruction; and it is suggested that Hampton and Tuskegee be utilized as the basis of this uniformity.

The negro teacher needs a complete general preparation in the best approved methods of instruction, and beside, a thorough understanding of and sympathy with the peculiar needs and circumstances of negro life, and we need more such teachers. Music education is especially important to the negro child. Our ancestors sang away their sorrow during the dark days of slavery. The cultivation of the melodic gift in their descendants will not only encourage a cheerfulness of disposition, but will lead to the unfoldment of their esthetic capabilities, and the incubation of sound moral principles and patriotic sentiment.

The establishment of kindergarten instruction in some of the large cities is highly encouraging; and we urge its universal introduction. The kindergarten must be relied upon to supply, in part at least, the lack of home influences, to extend the beneficence of wholesome instruction lower down in the life of the child, and to inculcate correct habits and notions of life.

In view of the short school terms throughout the south efforts be made to lengthen the terms, either by State appropriation or by contribution of the patrons.

BUSINESS AND LABOR.

The question of labor and trade is one of great importance for upon it depends the physical and material welfare of the race, which in turn must lie at the basis of all social, intellectual and moral development.

We urge that the manual training feature, as well as the instruction in business forms and methods, be engrafted upon the curricula of all our primary and secondary schools. We also recommend the establishment of industrial high school leading to complete equipment in the various trades and crafts, wherever the community is able to support them, as a part of the public system of instruction.

It is important that our youth be impressed with the necessity of thorough preparation in order to compete with the industrial life of the world. Nothing but the higher efficiency and fidelity to duty can win in the fierce material rivalry. Men demand the best service available for their needs, and it is necessary that our schools turn out the workman that maketh not ashamed.

We call upon our teachers and preachers in the country districts to advise the people to develop the agricultural and material resources of their respective communities and not deceived by the glare and glitter of city life.

The flocking of the agricultural masses to the cities constitutes one of the great social evils of the period. This evil is especially emphasized in the case of the negro immigrants. They do not form a part of the industrial current, and are apt to drift into the alleys and dens of squalor and vice, and their last state become worse than their first; and on the contrary, every effort should be put forth to induce many of those now in the alleys and by-ways of the city to seek the country. No one should be encouraged to migrate from the country to the city unless he has some definite employment or plan of work previously determined upon.

We urge that an understanding be sought with the trade unions and labor organizations, and that they be persuaded to see the unfairness and impolicy of discriminating against a class of American laborers who have equal claims as themselves to a right to work and make an honest living.

VITAL AND SANITARY PROBLEMS.

The alarmingly high death-rate among negroes threatens the physical continuance of the race.

We urge upon our teachers, ministers, physicians and all who have influence with the masses to impress upon the people the importance of exercise cleanliness ventilation wholesome food, pure water, suitable clothing and personal purity. They should be taught the contagiousness of tuberculosis and diseases of vicious origin, and the danger of intemperance, use of tobacco and the excessive indulgence of the appetite and passions.

RELIGION AND TEMPERANCE.

The mission of the church in the world is to save men. We believe this mission extends to social as well as to spiritual salvation. Our churches should put forth strenuous endeavor to reach and to hold the young people of the race who seem to drifting from them; and to this end they should use all means of inducement not inconsistent with the spirit and teachings of the great spiritual head of the church.

The claims of temperance, not only as applied to strong drinks, but also to the broader sense of moderation and self-restraint in all things, should be fearlessly presented to the people. The habits, passions, tastes appetites should be regulated according to the principles of moderation, sobriety, and virtue.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.

The greatest evil which slavery inflicted upon the negro race was that it destroyed the home, the natural unit of all social development. Perhaps the chief progress of the race lies in the fact that out of this demoralized state of things they have established so many pure sweet homes, whose regime is regulated according to the highest christian standards. And yet the work is only in its incipency.

We urge upon our women to organize local, regional and national associations for the purpose of inculcating principles of social purity, domestic economy and all that goes to purify sweeten and adorn the home. We congratulate the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute for the complete equipment of a department of domestic science; and we believe that this step is as important as any which it has yet taken to upbuild the negro race.

CRIMINAL, DEFECTIVE AND DEPENDENT CLASSES.

The criminal record of the colored race in all parts of the country is alarming in its proportions. We believe that this is due largely to industrial conditions as well as to the evils already pointed out in these resolutions. Their regularity of employment and the lack of industrial prospect and vista drive many of our people into criminal and vicious ranks.

PATRIOTISM.

We take just pride in the fact that in every crisis of our national life the voice of the negro has been on the side of loyalty and patriotism. We feel sure that this spirit of patriotism will continue and that in every calamity the arm of the negro can be relied upon to uphold the national cause.

Are you ready to save money, if so call at Adler's Shoe Store, who keeps the largest Shoe Store in the South west, his place is on the corner of 4th and E streets Southwest.

SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

We would respectfully call our readers' attention to a new field of labor that THE BEE has inaugurated at its office, 1109 I street, N. W.—A School of Printing for colored youths. It is the intention of the management that any who may avail themselves of the advantages of this school, shall receive a complete practical training in the art of printing in all its branches. The instruction will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Chase, member of the Typographical Union of this city, and who is without doubt among the best all-round printers in the country. Our facilities will be augmented by an entire new printing outfit, including all the latest styles of type, job presses and cylinder press, which will give pupils a chance to be up-to-date in the trade. In this connection we would ask our patrons to send in their orders for job work of any kind, as we will now be able to fill all orders from the smallest visiting card to the largest poster, and promise that our prices and work will compare favorably with those of any firm in the city.

Any young man desiring a trade will do well to write us for terms, etc., or call at this office and look over the establishment. The school will open on July 26th, and those desiring tuition will do well to inquire at once, as only a limited number can of necessity be accommodated. For information, terms, etc., Address, W. Calvin Chase, Manager Bee School of Printing.

Thanking you for past favors, and feeling a sure of your support in this new endeavor, we are yours, THE BEE.

JAMES F. GREGORY.

AMHERST COLLEGE'S CLASS ORATOR—WON SEVERAL ORATORICAL PRIZES—THE FIRST AFRO-AMERICAN CAPTAIN OF AN EASTERN COLLEGE BASE BALL TEAM.

From the Cleveland, (Ohio.) Gazette.

Bordentown, N. J.—James F. Gregory, second son of Prof. James M. Gregory, graduated from Amherst College June 29. He was the only Afro-American student in a class of ninety members, was class orator and also chosen as one of eight from the whole class to compete for the Hardy prize in debate. He was captain of the "Varsity" base ball team for '98, and is the first Afro-American to be elected as captain of a base ball team in any of the eastern colleges. In his Sophomore year he won the Kellogg oratorical prize of $50, and in his junior year won the Ladd and the Hogan oratorical prizes. This is a remarkable career for any young man, and he has every reason to be proud of it.

His father, James Monroe Gregory, for many years professor of languages, at Howard University, Washington, D. C., and now principal of Ironside Normal and Industrial school, this city, is a graduate of the Cleveland, high school, where one of both of his parent still live. The professor is a "Cleveland" boy and stands high as an educator the country over. His oldest son, Eugene M. Gregory, graduated from Harvard University with honor ("cum laude"), and is now a member of the law school of that famous institution of learning. His daughter, Margaret B. Gregory graduated from the collegiate department of St. Augustine school and is now a teacher in Ironside school.

The Springfield, (Mass.) Republican, which kindly furnished us the above portrait of Captain Gregory, contained the following in its issue of March 20: "James F. Gregory, '98, of Bordentown, N. J., captain of the Amherst base ball team, has played regularly for two years. He made a splendid record on his class team in freshman year. Sophomore year he played substitute short-stop and regularly right-field. Last year he played center-field. He is undoubtedly one of the finest fielders Amherst has ever had. A very strong and accurate thrower, he seldom fails to shut his man out at the plate. He is also a good batter. Although handicapped by the necessity of developing an entirely new battery, it is expected that he will turn out a good team this year."

FUTURE OF THE NEGRO RACE.

From the Literary Digest.

In discussing this question, The Medical Times, (New York July) reminds us that in the days of the Colonization Society which was formed to settle the negroes to Africa, Dr. Horace Bushnell, the eminent New England divine, maintained that if the white and black race should continue to live side by side in this country the stronger would inevitably drive out the weaker. Says the writer:

In this connection the mortality reports of some of our cities are of marked interest. In March, 1898, the death-rates for whites in Baltimore was 1 to 85; for negroes, 1 to 38; in Nashville, for the month of March the death-rate for whites was 1 to 85; for negroes 1 to 48. Statistics of other cities with a large colored population show similar results. It is a question whether, notwithstanding all the efforts which are being made to improve the condition of the colored race by education and facilities for remunerative labor, the colored race, as a race in the United States, is doomed, by

MISS MINNIE RUSSELL—DEAD.

Miss Minnie Russell, a daughter of Mr. Aaron Russell, one of the best known citizens of Washington, died at the residence of her parents last Sunday at 10:20 a. m., 411 N street, northwest. Miss Russell was a most amiable young lady and well known by a large number of people. Her death is a sad blow to the community as she was one of the best known young ladies in this city.

A SAD DEATH.

One of the saddest events that has occurred since the close of school, is the death of Miss Minnie Russell, who never entirely recovered from the effects of an attack of typhoid fever with which she was afflicted last summer. She rallied for awhile, but owing to the weakness of her system, became an easy prey to the ravages of consumption. Consequently on last Sunday night, about 10 o'clock the "Angel of Death" visited the happy home of Mr. Aaron Russell, where he and his wife had so carefully and tenderly sown the seeds of true christianity and plucked one of its fairest flowers.

Miss Russell was educated in the Public schools of Washington, D. C., receiving an appointment as teacher after her graduation from the Normal school in '95, in which vocation she proved most successful.

As a member of the 15th Street Presbyterian church and Sunday school, she was one of the most faithful workers. Ever willing, ever near when and where duty called her.

On Wednesday July 27th the 15th Street Presbyterian church was crowded to its utmost capacity with many friends and relatives of the family to pay the last tribute of respect to all that remained mortal of their friend and favorite, Minnie. Rev. Francis Grimke, the pastor, who had been on a summer vacation at Hampton, came home for the purpose of administering the funeral rites to one of the most faithful members of his flock.

From a pulpit over a white velvet carpet bedecked with floral tributes of every conceivable design, the pastor discoursed for awhile, on a thought taken from the xiv chapter of St. John, 18 verse.

"I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you." He then paid a glowing tribute to the christian life and character of the deceased and her model life at home, where she had knelt all of her life at the shrine of the altar, erected and tended by two faithful, loving and kind parents.

The choir rendered sweet and heavenly music which proved exceedingly touching when it sang her favorite hymn, "Abide with me," and then "Come unto me," was sang by Prof. Layton, here was scarcely a dry eye in the church, for none knew Minnie but to love her.

IN THE COURTS.

Charles Carter was acquitted in the Criminal Court on Thursday of assault and battery with intent to kill. He was represented by Messrs. Chase and Jones.

Richard Evans who was charged in the Police Court on Tuesday with selling liquor without license was acquitted. He was represented by Mr. Chase.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

Between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed. In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1:00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited" will leave Washington at 3:00 P. M., arriving New York at 8:10 P. M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking

BAILEY'S IMPROVED TRUSS.

It adjusts itself so perfectly to the rupture that it is impossible for it to become displaced. It permits the utmost freedom of motion with perfect safety.

All uncomfortable and injurious steel spring pressure is avoided.

The pad is held in place by woven bands, which retain an equal pressure in all positions of the body.

It can be worn in bed, a great desideratum to the young as tending to a perfect cure.

It is the only suitable truss for children and females.

The proper amount of pressure can be brought to bear and maintained in any position without pinching or harm to the wearer.

It will cure hernia if placed on the patient sufficiently early.

Excepting umbilical, it is the best truss ever offered for all kinds of hernia.

It is so perfect and comfortable in its adjustment that the patient in a short time forgets he is wearing it. (See the certificate of Mr. Daniel Johnson.)

Sent postage paid to any address on receipt of price; $3 for single and $4 for double truss.

In ordering, give location of hernia, right or left side, and measurement.

Satisfaction given or money refunded when the truss is returned in good order. Address:

THE SIDE

You have been complimented for your excellent work. Strict discipline is what is necessary.

A young lady should be well supplied with escorts. Never depend on the company of one male.

Your letter was too indiscreet. It is in bad taste to use vulgar terms or slang; always display good manners.

It was Fred Douglass who first offered a son to Major Andrews. History of the negro soldiers will enlighten you.

Old coal will kindle some times. Fond recollections of the past generally recall to one's mind loving events.

Do not expose your ignorance to young men. They often take advantage of it.

Dressing is an art and few seem to appreciate the fact. You should always dress with taste.

Nothing is more distasteful than to see a crowd of girls assemble to gossip about frivolous matters. Good and beneficial topics should always occupy the mind of a young girl.

Too much familiarity often leads to disagreements and unpleasantness. Never allow yourself to get too familiar with any one.

It is generally the rule. One very seldom sought after until some thing is needed. Some girls are desirable.

Society should be polished and polite. A loud laugh portrays a vulgar mind.

You should have resented the insult at once. A pretentious man will pretend that he has great interest in your welfare.

Take my advice and never go on a common excursion. I am opposed to girls going on excursions unaccompanied by parents.

You did the right thing to refuse the advances of the man. The manner is as well as the place.

Such a person who pretends to be a friend should not be trusted.

It makes no difference whether you were engaged to him or not. Circumstances have separated you. The friendship that once existed should not be tolerated, if you have accepted an engagement ring from another. Give him to understand in plain English that his company is not acceptable.

If you girls will permit long friendship, it is your fault. I have a poor opinion of a young lady who would ask for a present from a gentleman to whom she is engaged.

Never place yourself under obligations to any one. It is better to be poor than to place yourself in such a position.

My opinion is that your manners were rather rude. Sedateness and polite manners will win all the time.

You should always attend to business as you are directed. Never talk your business to other people.

You can be pleasant always, but be positive in your business relations. It is quite easy for one to misjudge another's meaning.

Your selection should be appreciated. I am sure. You should remember, however, that an intelligent girl should not marry below her station, nor should she be intellectually inferior.

One's house affairs should be exposed to the neighborhood. Talkative girls are not to be trusted with secrets. My advice is to confide in a few.

Never attempt to look down on any one with contempt. You never know when you will be compelled to turn to him for aid and succor.

I would advise you to be honest in your dealings with your associates. Nothing commends a young woman more than honesty. You must have a positive character. When a young man loses confidence in you, it would be better to find another companion.

A young lady that commands the respect of any man is a jewel.

In reply to your letter of recent date, I would suggest that you discontinue such practice. A few men have confidence in a young girl who carries on flirtation with a young man who may be true. I have but one opinion in office holders. A majority of them spend their money before a drawn.

It is in bad taste to allow a young man to meet you at a place of amusement. He should certainly make one evening off to escort you to the place of amusement.

No young lady should take punch cards to solicit money. A vulgar and no lady of refinement and education would be guilty of such impropriety, money for punch cards should be collected differently. The lady will either be insulted or her intentions may be misconstrued.

Thursday July 21, the illustrious Sphinx for North America, accompanied by a delegation of nobles and daughters from Washington, D. C.,

of Alexandria, Va. The grand officers found the Sphinx in splendid condition and the Ill. M. L. Robinson can well be proud of the good work in Alexandria. The officers having been installed the visitors were then refreshed in due form. Among the prominent members who accompanied the party were Inspector Gen'l Noble
W. B. Brooks, 33, Noble S. Haskins

The funerals in Arabia. One of the strangest and most affecting sights in Arabia is that of funerals. The corpse is merely wrapped in a mat of esparto grass and carried either on a bier or on men's shoulders. The mourners lounge along, some in front and some behind, crooning verses of the Karan in melancholy tones, which haunt one for days afterwards. This wailing is nothing to that which goes on at the house of the deceased, some times it is kept up all night. At the funeral of a baby at Bizerta, it was carried to the grave in an esparto basket.

Aaron, the son of Amram and Jockeb of the Tribe of Levi, was the brother of Moses and was three years older, during the march of the children of Israel through the wilderness, Aaron and his two sons were appointed by God to exercise forever the office of priest in the Tabernacle, after the Tabernacle was built Moses consecrated Aaron to the high priesthood with the holy oil and invested him with his priestly robes, his garments of glory and beauty. Aaron died at Mosera, of the District of Mount Hor.

Jerusalem, meaning dwelling of peace this celebrated city, the capital of Palistine, was the seat of true religion under the Jewish theocracy and also the chief scene of our saviour's ministry and the central point from which his gospel was promulgated. It is often called the Holy City, among the Arabs it is called El Gods, The Holy.
